100 VOICES
EDMONTON VALLEY ZOO

I can play safely in my environment • I can find patterns, numbers and shapes • I can reflect on how my feelings and actions impact others • I can move different ways in a variety of spaces • I can keep myself safe in new places • I can learn about the people in my community • I can express ideas through a variety of materials • I can express my ideas through stories • I can cooperate with others • I can explore my environment • I can discover • I can explain how I feel by using drawings and art • I can use picture symbols and objects to represent my ideas • I can play safely with others • I can ask questions • I can celebrate my faith in my community • I can celebrate and respect all of God's creation • I can problem solve and make decisions • I can wonder • I can take care of myself and other living things • I can respect and show compassion for living things • I can think critically and problem solve • I can talk with and learn from others • I can collect data and information • I can describe what I notice and feel when I am in nature • I can investigate, discover and explore

ETHICAL CITIZEN

EDUCATION

- Children interact and learn in a variety of contexts
- Provide natural opportunities to develop, make connections and integrate math and literacy learning
- Develop inquiry skills including wondering, questioning, exploring and investigating, discussing, reflecting and formulating ideas and theories
- Think critically and makes discoveries

CONSERVATION

- Adapts to change with an attitude of optimism and hope for the future
- Stewards of the earth minimize environmental impacts and builds relationships
- Develops the courage to dream
- Extending children's thinking to broaden their interactions with the world around them

ENTREPRENEURIAL SPIRIT

STEWARDSHIP

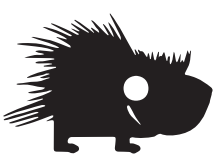
- Demonstrating respect, empathy and compassion for all people, and God's creation
- Contributes fully to the community and the world through teamwork, collaboration and communication
- Being good caretakers of creation
- Using our special gifts and talents to make the earth a better place

ENGAGED THINKER

ENGAGEMENT

- Daily opportunities for learning, playing and exploring in an alternate environment
- Develop curiosity, eagerness, imagination and experimentation
- Cooperatively explore with materials, the environment and each other
- Collaboration with Valley Zoo staff (interpreters, zoo keepers, veterinarian etc.) to create new knowledge

School GENESIS



EDMONTON VALLEY ZOO
Get Closer