“Weekly News” Nov. 16-20, 2020

Principal’s Message

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Nov. 15-21 is Métis Week. Métis Week is an annual event planned by the Métis Nation of Alberta and sees a range of interesting commemorative events take place across Alberta. Métis Week is also an opportunity for Métis people in Alberta to share their stories, history, and culture with the rest of the world. For more information the city of Edmonton has some information regarding events that will be schedule to commemorate this week across the city. You can find more information HERE:

On November 26 we will be hosting our Demo of Learning. This will be done through Microsoft Teams. See attached document for booking information. All appointments are 10 minutes long. We encourage you to have your child participate with you as well. After the team meeting you will have the opportunity to look at your child’s Google classroom or student portfolio’s and have them share their successes with you.
