

CTR 3310 – CAREER DIRECTIONS - TRANSITIONS

CTR3310

1 Credit Course

Course Overview	CTR 2310 and CTR3310 are one credit CTS modules where students develop career portfolios - an organized collection of evidence showing accomplishments both in and out of school, as well as a transition plan that focuses beyond Grade 12. A career portfolio contains samples of work that exhibit and reveal the quality and variety of learning, accomplishments, skills and experiences. CTR 2310 begins the process of developing a career portfolio and CTR 3310 bolsters the work done in CTR 2310, giving students an up-to-date tool for self-promotion for employment purposes or educational endeavours such as scholarship applications. CTR 2310 and 3310 require significant work to be completed in myBlueprint, including the digital portfolio feature.

An Important Note About Assessment	A wide range of assessment information is used in the development of a student's final grade. Within Alternative Education, individualized assessments provide specific information regarding student progress and overall performance in the course. Student assessments may vary from student to student to adapt to differences in student needs, learning styles, preferences and paces. The teacher will apply best teaching practices to determine appropriate assessment.
