

PREPARATION FOR PARENTING 35

LDC3170

5 Credit Course

Course Overview	Preparation for Parenting 35 will prepare teen pregnant and parenting teens to navigate the obstacles of successful parenting in the areas of educational choices, ethical issues and support opportunities for their children. Independent, successful and resourceful choices from the start of pregnancy to when the parents are fully integrated adults in our society takes both individualized programming and consistent messaging. Breaking the cycle of dependency is a major role in any program for pregnant and parenting teens and Preparation for Parenting 35 fulfills this goal for those students who are nearly ready to enter into the adult, independent world as prepared and confident parents.
