Prerequisite	A course mark of 50% or higher in Social Studies 9
Required Materials & Resources	Textbook: Perspectives on Globalization

Course Overview

Students will explore multiple perspectives on the origins of globalization and the local, national and international impacts of globalization on lands, cultures, economies, human rights and quality of life. Students will examine the relationships among globalization, citizenship and identity to enhance skills for citizenship in a globalizing world. The infusion of multiple perspectives will allow students to examine the effects of globalization on peoples in Canada and throughout the world, including the impact on Aboriginal and Francophone communities.

Key Issue	Key Outcome
To what extent should we embrace globalization?	Students will understand, assess and respond to the complexities of globalization.
Related Issues	General Outcomes
1. To what extent should globalization shape identity?	Students will explore the impacts of globalization on their lives
2. To what extent should contemporary society respond to the legacies of historical globalization?	Students will assess the impacts of historical globalization on Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples.
3. To what extent does globalization contribute to sustainable prosperity for all people?	Students will assess economic, environmental and other contemporary impacts of globalization.

Important Note Regarding Assessment	A wide range of assessment information is used in the development of a student's final grade. In Edmonton Catholic Schools, individualized assessments provide specific information regarding student progress and overall performance in class. Assessment may vary from student to student, differentiating for various student needs. It should also be noted that not all assignments are used to determine the final grade, and that scale factors may have been used to determine the weight of individual assignments.
