

QUICK UPDATES FROM ANNUNCIATION SCHOOL

Here is your update for the week of May 16th

Good News!	 Well done to our amazing staff, students and parents on a very successful IB Evaluation. The evaluators were very impressed with all they saw, despite it being virtual and they are very thankful, as are we, for everyone's input and support throughout this process. We will hopefully be sharing more information about our IB Evaluation in the near future.

School News	➤ Our Grade 6 students will be writing Provincial Achievement Tests this year. This week, they will write their language arts written portion of the test. In June, they will write tests in the core subject areas - language arts comprehension, math, social studies and science. They have worked hard all year and we wish them all the best while writing these tests. Please do your best not to schedule any appointments on the dates of the assessments.

Have a Great Week!
