

New for 2021–22!

The Discover University of Alberta Award assists students who are entering the U of A without having completed any post-secondary coursework and who have demonstrated financial challenges and barriers to attending university.

Students will be considered for up to $8,000 per year in award funding. Up to 30 new students per year will qualify for the award.

DISCOVER UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA AWARD

Funding your Future

The U of A offers a variety of student financial supports to help you succeed. We're here to help!

AWARD DETAILS

Eligibility Criteria

The eligibility criteria includes the following:

- Admissibility to an undergraduate direct-entry program.
- Canadian citizenship, Permanent Resident status, or protected person status in Canada.
- Entrance to the U of A without having completed any post-secondary coursework.
- Demonstration of financial challenges and barriers to attending university.

What will you need for the application?

As part of the award application, students will be asked to answer both short and long answer questions and provide a support reference.

- Description of life circumstance
- Education goals and challenges
- Support reference

How to Apply

Visit uab.ca/awards for more information and how to apply.

Application Deadline

Applications open November 1 and close February 15 with offers being made beginning in mid-April.

Questions?

uab.ca/ask